

TIME TRAVEL ENFORCEMENT AGENCY CONCERN
Once again the TTEA are expressing concerns about the number of travellers that are embarking on journeys without effective M.O.T.s of their Theseus Thread Encapsulator. 'Remember, it is this device which must be fitted to all time travelling vehicles that ensures that no unauthorised journeys affect the 'time and space continuum'. Offenders face a 40year jail sentence and ban on all future time travel. The entire Time Travel Industry relies on the continuous employment of this essential hardware'. Major J.Blandenburg of the TTEA.

TOMPSON'S TIME TRAVEL AGENCY
Take a memorable trip with one of our knowledgeable tour guides to Italy's Campania region. This month we are offering a life changing excursion to Pompeii in 78AD, just prior to the eruption. After a brief spell in the baths, we give you time to mingle amongst the traders on the famous cobbled streets of this sophisticated city. Why not add a 2hour boat trip off the coast of Naples, looking back on the breathtaking view of Pompeii and Mount Vesuvius.

TIMEBUBBLE TOY EMPLOYEES PREPARE TO SELL TOYS TO BLACKBEARD

Timebubble Toys are once again attempting the unthinkable. If you remember last month, when the toy company founders visited Edmund Hillary on 29th May 1953, you might not be surprised to hear that next month they are planning to visit Blackbeard on the eve of his famous party on N.Carolina in Sept 1718. A spokesman from the online toy, gift and game shop said: 'After buying Mr Teach a drink he asked if we could create a party gift that would distract them from using live firearms, should a brawl break out during the party'. The company have designed flintlock rubber band guns based on Napoleonic sea-service pistols, pistols that would rival any Queen Anne pistol of 1718!

Issue 2, Summer 2017 - Following his successful descent of Everest, Edmund Hillary endorses the 'Yeti Feet' after playing a prank on his fellow mountaineer and Nepalese Sherpa Tenzig Norgay.

EGYPT'S MUSEUM OF ANTIQUITIES OFFERS FINANCIAL SUPPORT
You may well know that since the discovery of Tutankhamun, there has been unanswered questions regarding his untimely death. Now that time travel has been proven to be a safe means of travel, researchers are hailing it as a golden opportunity to solve the unsolved mysteries of the past. Time travellers with experience of at least 20 expeditions are requested to come forward. Interested parties are encouraged to contact the TB Chronicle.

MY QUESTION TO THE PROFESSOR IS- 'When visiting a period in history, why can we sometimes interact with those around us and at other times we cannot be seen and are, as you put it, a 'GHOST'- merely General Historical Observers In Space and Time?'

Margaret Winterbottom

* 'If you know your Greek myths, you'll recall that after Theseus supposedly defeated the Minotaur, he escaped the complex labyrinth following a trail of wool he had left behind. Our present day, this exact moment in time, is the final result of a complex labyrinth of infinite events, possibilities and outcomes. If we wish as time travellers to return to the present day we know, we must follow a minute woven 'event and time thread'. As long as we continue to use Theseus Thread Encapsulators, time travellers pose no risk to the time and space continuum'. Professor Walter Pickles, creator of TimeBubble Juice.
